BEALL - DALLIS HOUSE

LeGrange, Troup County, Georgia

Owner: Mrs. George Dallis.

Date of Erection: Land grant 1832 and deed of house and land 1834.

Architect: and Builder Probably Chas. C. Bailey.

Present Condition: Good.

Number of Stories: Two.

Materials of Construction: Brick foundation, wood floors, frame exterior walls.

Other Existing Records: Picture in The Domestic Architecture of The Early Republic, by Howard Major.

Additional Data: Greek Doric two-story porch around three sides. Second story balcony across front. Originally only four rooms and then owned by Sam A. Bailey of same family as Chas. Bailey, Architect. The front four rooms were built about 1850 by George Heard, owner. Tradition has it that traveling Italian workmen did plaster ceilings. Later owned by Beall.
Information furnished by Leslie Dallis, of LeGrange, nephew of present owner.
